Middletown Elks Lodge 2179 Hosts 53rd Charity Ball Benefiting Special Children

MTPD officers stand proudly with honoree Hunter Dyson.

Six-year-old Hunter Dyson received a certificate during the gala from the Middletown Township Committee recognizing him for his ability to overcome challenges with a smile and positive attitude.

Mayor Tony Perry presented Hunter with a super hero-themed award to commend him for reminding us to "soar to new heights".

The Middletown Elks's Special Children Committee held its biggest fundraiser of the year, the 53rd Charity Ball, at the Gramercy at Lakeside Manor in Hazlet on Saturday, March 2nd.

All proceeds from this affair enable the committee to continue its vital work assisting and enhancing the lives of special children in our community. This year's honoree was 6-year-old Hunter Dyson who was diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder before his 5th birthday. Mayor Tony Perry attended the gala to present Hunter with an award on behalf of the Middletown Township Committee to commend him for his ability to overcome challenges with courage and positivity. Middletown Township is fortunate to have an Elks Lodge that is so integrally involved in our community and our children.
