

Middletown Township Partners with Eastern Monmouth Area Chamber of Commerce

Middletown Township today announced its partnership with the Eastern Monmouth Area Chamber of Commerce (EMACC) to help provide local businesses with an effective channel to network, exchange ideas and market themselves.

On Wednesday, May 8th Mayor Tony Perry, the Middletown Township Committee and Freeholder Director Tom Arnone hosted a Small Business Roundtable at the Middletown Arts Center. "We wanted to gather local business owners during National Small Business Week to give them the opportunity to meet face-to-face with Township and County officials to discuss initiatives and improvements to further enhance our relationship," said Mayor Perry. "Small businesses are the backbone of our town's economy and this partnership with EMACC will better enable them to have a wealth of resources to help them grow and reach their full potential."

Township "Reaches Out" to 5th Graders to Discuss Dangers of Drug & Alcohol Addiction

On Monday, May 13th the Middletown Municipal Alliance presented its 16th annual Reaching Out event to 5th graders at Harmony, New Monmouth, Ocean Avenue and Port Monmouth schools. The event was held at Middletown High School North where Mayor Tony Perry welcomed the students and spoke about the resources available to them. Cyber-bullying specialist Nicki Francis discussed the dangers of social media and Internet safety with parents, while prevention educator Hugh Wallace spoke with the students.

Guest speaker and recovering drug addict Andrew Suarez shared his story with the children in an effort to help guide them to make better life choices. Students also had the opportunity to interact with the panel and ask questions about how to deal with real-life situations that involve drug and alcohol.

Panelists included Township Committeewoman Pat Snell, Monmouth County Freeholder Gerry Scharfenberger (Alliance Member), MTPD Community Relations Officer Ricardo Cruz, Primary Counselor at Crossroads Rebecca Rean (Alliance Member), Thorne Middle School Student Assistance Counselor Kristin Wessels, Nicki Francis and Andrew Suarez.

Thank you to the Municipal Alliance, Health Department and Crossroads for continuing to educate our young people about addiction and where to get help.

Veterans Affairs Committee Donates 16 KIA/POW Flags to First Responders

On Monday, May 13th the Middletown Veterans Affairs Committee (VAC) donated 16 POW/MIA flags to our 11 Firehouses and 5 First Aid Squads to fly at their buildings. Committeeman Rick Hibell accepted the flags as a member of the Middletown Township Committee and Ex-Fire Chief. We thank the VAC for their generosity and everything they do in honor of those who have served our nation.

Township Celebrates "Older Americans Month" at We Care Adult Care

On Friday, May 17th Committeewoman Pat Snell visited the seniors at We Care Adult Care, located in the Union Square Mall (552 NJ-35), to present them with a proclamation recognizing May as "Older Americans Month". She spoke about the vital role seniors play in our community, especially in keeping our heritage alive for future generations.

Community Affairs Council Restores Patriotic Bench

As Memorial Day approaches, the Middletown Township Community Affairs Council decided it was the perfect time to repaint the red, white and blue bench located on the corner of New Monmouth Road and Route 35. This bench was donated by the Council back in 1976. Mayor Perry stopped by to check out the new paint job and thank them for the work they do to benefit our community.

Mayor Tony Perry had the honor of cutting the ribbon at One River School of Art and Design, located at Ventura Plaza, 1275 NJ-35 in Middletown.

We are excited to see the COLOR you will bring to our community and wish you the best of luck!
