Middletown Township Celebrates 100th Anniversary of Women's Right to Vote

Middletown Township held a presentation recognizing the Centennial of Women's Right to Vote at the Township Committee meeting on February 18th.

February 9th marked the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment in New Jersey giving women the right to vote. Several women elected officials were invited to the February 18th meeting to celebrate this important milestone. Freeholder Deputy Director Sue Kiley led the Pledge of Allegiance at the beginning of the meeting. Monmouth County Clerk Christine Hanlon then read the 19th Amendment, followed by Monmouth County Surrogate and former Middletown Mayor Rosemarie Peters who then read the Township's proclamation commemorating this anniversary. Assemblywoman Serena DiMaso and Freeholder Lillian Burry were also in attendance.

The Township also honored six elementary-school-aged girls for their recent achievements demonstrating leadership, commitment and passion. Township Committeewoman Pat Snell invited the young ladies to the front of the room and they each briefly explained what they did and what inspired their hard work:

- Finley Elias, a 4th grade student at Lincroft Elementary School, raised over $17,000 in less than a month to benefit a koala hospital in Australia. She created a logo featuring the word "Love" with a koala hugging a tree as the "L" and put the logo on t-shirts, hoodies and other items. Finley and her family sold these items at Lincroft Elementary, Bayshore Middle School, where her sister Briella attend, and Monroe Township Middle School where her mom Katy teaches.
- Nut Swamp Elementary School 5th grade students Mia Collins, Emma Mercés, Lilah Nicosia and Marlowe Schorr raised close to $2500 selling homemade crafts and baked goods at their holiday fundraising shop and donated it to the Monmouth County SPCA and St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

- Brenna McCormick, a 3rd grader at Bayview Elementary School, was chosen to be featured on the new Thanks-A-Lot Girl Scout cookie boxes based on her cookie sales, an application she submitted about her experience as a Girl Scout and after she participated in a soccer photo shoot at a camp sponsored by the Girl Scouts of the United States of America. (Brenna was not able to attend the meeting, but her achievement was recognized.)

Congratulations to all of these girls for being a wonderful example for our community!

MTPD Swears in Two New Deputy Chiefs and First Female Lieutenant at Township Committee Meeting

Mayor Tony Perry swore in Middletown's first female Lieutenant Kimberly Best while her daughter Molly held the Bible.

Deputy Chief John E. Kaiser was given his Oath of Office by Mayor Tony Perry as his children, Emmett and Katherine held the Bible.

At the February 18th Township Committee Meeting, Lieutenant John Kaiser and Detective Lieutenant Paul Bailey were promoted to the rank of Deputy Chief and will join Middletown Township Police Chief R. Craig Weber and Deputy Chief Robert Stefanski in Administration. Kimberly Best was also sworn in as the first female Lieutenant in Middletown.

"I was honored to swear in Middletown's two newest Deputy Chiefs and to witness the promotion of the Township's first female Lieutenant in the 92 years of MTPD history," said Mayor Tony Perry. "The commitment and professionalism of our Police Department is the very reason Middletown is consistently ranked as one of the safest towns in America."

Four other officers were also promoted and received their Oaths of Office at the jam-packed meeting filled with fellow officers, elected officials, friends and family members. Police Chief Craig Weber spoke briefly about the background and attributes of each officer who was promoted.

Middletown Hosts Mobile Town Hall at Lincroft Fire Company

Lincroft Fire and EMS volunteers offered "Touch a Truck" ambulance tours to families.

Mayor Tony Perry and Township Committee members Rick Hibell and Pat Snell were on hand to speak with residents.

Members from each department were stationed at tables and available to answer questions and help residents with any Town Hall-related business.

On Thursday, February 20th residents had the opportunity to meet with members of the Township Committee, Department Heads and staff at the first 2020 Mobile Town Hall event held at the Lincroft Fire Company. Thank you everyone who supported the event in the Township's effort to bring Town Hall closer to their neighborhood.

Middletown Community Affairs Council Hosts Annual Student Job Fair at High School North on

Wednesday, 3/25 at 7:00 PM

Middletown's 29th annual High School Student Job Fair, hosted by the Middletown Community Affairs Council, will be held on Wednesday, March 25th from 7:00 PM until 8:30 PM at Middletown High School North, located at 63 Tindall Road.

Each year this event has afforded employers a great opportunity to meet and screen high school student applicants for a job in a relaxed but organized setting. There is no charge for employers to attend and each company is given table space to conduct short interviews. Middletown schools are academically highly-rated and have students that are highly-motivated. Past employers return each year because of the stellar performances by students they employed.

The Middletown Community Affairs Council has organized this highly successful event for 28 year and it attracts over 200 students each year. If you are an employer currently seeking employees come on out and showcase your company with material and visual setups!

Employers interested in participating can contact Mitch Gotesky at (732) 915-2445/NYCRED1@AOL.COM or John Giordano at (732) 996-7495/JOHNGIORDANO@YAHOO.COM.
