On behalf of the Township Committee, he wanted to thank them for the vital role they play in our community and beyond to fight hunger and reduce waste. The Township applauds their efforts to drive others to donate pantry items that they normally would have tossed during their move to help those who are in need. ## THE MTPL PRESENTS: August Wilson Radio Golf

TWO RIVER THEATER

AUGUST WILSON RADIO GOLF

a pre-show discussion

Two River Theater marketing manager Hannah Walker provides insights into the tenth and final play in August Wilson's American Century Cycle.

Set in 1997, real-estate developer Harmond Wilks is determined to become the first black mayor of Pittsburgh, and to revitalize the Hill District.

Starbucks, Barnes & Noble and Whole Foods are ready to move in. But one particular house on the development site, at 1839 Wylie Avenue, must be torn down, a casualty of urban blight. And that house belonged to Wilson's legendary Aunt Ester—forcing Harmond, and the Hill District itself, into a battle between the past and the future.
