

Middletown Township Police Department Holds Police Memorial and Swearing-In Ceremony

In memory of fallen law enforcement officers, the Middletown Township Police Department (MTPD) held its annual Police Memorial Service at 11 AM on Friday, May 14th during National Police Week. The service was held at the Middletown Police Memorial, located at the corner of Kings Highway and Route 35. The memorial honored the 61 police officers who served the MTPD, five of them being K-9s. The service began with a Call to Order and the Pledge of Allegiance. Father Luigi Hargain and Deacon Martin McMahon led the ceremony with an invocation. Police Chief R. Craig Weber and Mayor Tony Perry delivered speeches at the event, and Deputy Chief Robert Stefanski read the names of Middletown's deceased officers. Members of the VFW Post 2179 laid down a wreath while bagpipers from the New Jersey State Police played music.

The memorial concluded with a Police Officer's Prayer, recited by Deacon Martin McMahon, and TAPS performed by Middletown High School South student Logan Patterson. Officers Michael P. Allen, Charles J. Higgins, and Ian May were promoted. Chase Schwerthoffer, Wilson Cartagena, Willard Potter, Rubin Walker, Steven Coll, Gary Kramer, and John Zarkivach accepted their Oaths of Office and were sworn in by Mayor Tony Perry. Tomorrow, May 15th marks the MTPD's 93rd anniversary.

Middletown and Monmouth County Host Small Business Roundtable

On Tuesday, May 11th Mayor Tony Perry and Monmouth County Commissioner Director Tom Arnone hosted a Small Business Roundtable at the Middletown Arts Center. About 50 small-business owners attended the event that was held to discuss the ongoing efforts to assist them as we emerge from the pandemic, as well as projects that the Township and County continue to work together on. Members of the Township Committee, Administration, the Eastern Monmouth Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Small Business Development Center at Brookdale Community College were also on hand to provide information about resources and answer questions.

Smoke Detectors and Combination Smoke-Carbon Monoxide Detectors are Being Recalled

Middletown Township Fire Department (MTFD) is alerting our community that about 226,000 smoke detectors and combination smoke-carbon monoxide detectors are being recalled because they may "fail to alert consumers to a fire".

The nationwide recall is for Kidde TruSense Smoke Alarms and combination smoke/carbon monoxide alarms that were sold at Walmart, Home Depot, Menards, Amazon, and other stores between May 2019 and September 2020, according to a recall notice posted on May 6th on the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission's website.

No incidents or injuries have been reported, the notice said. The seven recalled alarm models sold for between $10 and $70.

"Consumers should immediately contact Kidde for a free replacement alarm," the notice states. "Consumers should keep using the recalled alarms until they install replacement alarms."
