recycling tip of the week

It's easy to agree on ordering pizza for dinner, but not as easy to decide what to do with the cardboard box it comes in! There is a lot of debate on whether or not pizza boxes are recyclable. Simply put, as long as the cardboard is not contaminated with ANY grease, sauce, or food, it's recyclable!

Still confused? Download the  app to get the What Goes Where look-up tool.

Unsure how to discard a cardboard box? As long as the cardboard is not contaminated with ANY grease, sauce, or food, it's recyclable!

Our Department of Public Works and Engineering also encourages residents to familiarize themselves with Recycle Coach for easy access to recycling information at their fingertips. Download it to get the What Goes Where look-up tool, which tells you where you should discard specific items in an effort to be more sustainable.

WILL BROWN, VICTIM OF NOV'S WRATH

Dunbar Repertory Company will be presenting "Minstrel Show, or The Lynching of William Brown" at the Middletown Arts Center (36 Church Street) this February, beginning next week. The show is directed by Darrell Lawrence Willis, Sr. and is starring Joseph G. Taylor and Arthur Gregory Pugh.

"Minstrel Show, or The Lynching of William Brown"

Unsettling and compelling, Max Sparber's "Minstrel Show, or The Lynching of William Brown" recreates a harrowing true story about the 1919 lynching of a jailed Black man, as seen through the eyes of a couple of fictional song-and-dance men.
